

FRANÇOIS L.D. 1967

A close-up photograph of the bow of a ship. The upper part of the hull is white and features the text "FORT SI LOUIS" in black, sans-serif capital letters. The lower part of the hull is a dark, reddish-brown color. The ship is moving through light blue water, creating a white wake. The background shows a distant shoreline with trees and buildings under a bright sky.

A photograph of a building at night. The word "INDIA" is illuminated in bright white letters on a dark rectangular sign mounted on a light-colored wall. To the left of the sign, the letters "D.C." are faintly visible on the wall. Two silhouetted figures are standing on a walkway to the left of the sign. The building has a modern architectural style with a white facade and a dark, possibly wooden, door. In the background, there are trees and other parts of the building, some of which are lit up. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the glowing sign and some interior lights visible through windows.
